Davis to Lead Congressional Delegation to Iraq

Washington, D.C. – House Government Reform Committee Chairman Tom Davis (R-VA) announced today he will lead a bipartisan congressional delegation to Iraq during the week of August 25th.

Davis' goal is to examine firsthand the Iraqi reconstruction efforts, gauge troop morale, and ascertain from both civilians and the military what we can expect in the near and long term.

The delegation will travel to Egypt at the end of the week to obtain the Egyptian perspective on the "Roadmap for Peace" and what more can be done to move toward peace and stability in the Israeli-Palestinian conflict.

Joining Davis on the trip will be Reps. Chris Shays, Martin Meehan, Ed Schrock, Bill Shuster, Mark Kennedy, Adam Schiff, Mike Rogers, Michael Burgess, Carolyn Maloney, and Chris Chocola.

Media interested in learning more about the delegation, or arranging interviews with Davis before, during or after the trip, should call John Cuaderes with the Government Reform Committee at (202) 225-5074. David Marin, the committee's communications director, will be out of the office from Friday, August 15 until Monday, August 25.
